

<http://www.clickliverpool.com/news/national-news/1213580-liverpool-eateries-relax-prices-for-slow-food-week.html>

Liverpool eateries relax prices for Slow Food week ✓

by Aaron Sharp. Published Tue 14 Jun 2011 15:28, Last updated: 2011-06-14

Eateries in Liverpool are preparing to take their foot off the gas and relax their prices for national Slow Food week.

Some of the city's most delicious delis, revered restaurants and coveted cafés are serving special deals for customers who visit during the celebration of fresh summer produce between June 20th and 26th.

Slow Food, a global, grassroots movement, seeks to promote the link between the pleasure of food with a commitment to community and the environment.

Food establishments in the city are doing their bit to support the cause by offering discounts and promotions during the week, promising the peckish people in Liverpool and bargain belly-full of delicious dining.

Retailers participating in Slow Food week and their offers feature:

- Clarkes Butchers, 136 Allerton Road, 0151 734 5887, are offering a 10% discount.

- Adams Apple Ltd, 132 Allerton Road 733 6333 are offering a 10% discount.

- Deli Fonseca, Stanley Street or Brunswick Dock, www.delifonseca.co.uk, are offering 20% discount off all NorthWest Counter products.

- Liverpool Cheese Company, Woolton Road 0151 428 3942 www.liverpoolcheesecompany.co.uk are offering, £5 off when you spend £20 and or £10 when you spend £40

Restaurants participating in Slow Food week and their offers feature:

- Side Door, Hope Street, 707 7888

www.thesidedoor.co.uk, are offering a free starter or dessert with a main meal, Monday to Friday

- The London Carriage Works, Hope Street, 0151 705 2222 www.thelondoncarriageworks.co.uk, are providing a free glass of Prosecco during lunch Monday to Saturday, and with the prix-fixe menu before 6.30pm.

- Host, Hope Street, 0151 707 5831, www.ho-st.co.uk, have the Host Most Slow offer. A selected main course with a glass of house wine or selected beer for £8.

- 60 Hope Street 0151 707 6060 www.60hopestreet.com have a Best of British Menu with Slow Food dishes, £15 for two courses or £20 for three, including a glass of wine.

- The Quarter, 0151 707 1965, www.thequarteruk.com, will offer a selection of Slow Food specials available through the week.

- Lunya, 18 College Lane, www.lunya.co.uk 0151 706 9770 are offering 20% discount on their main menu tapas dishes excluding Saturday (not combinable with any other offers).

- Deli Fonseca Stanley Street or Brunswick Dock www.delifonseca.co.uk are offering a digestif of Sloe Brandy/ Whisky/ Gin or Vodka with every two course meal.

All these offers are valid during Slow Food Week see individual participants for details.

More details are available at Slow Food Liverpool's Facebook page. Diners should book DIRECT with all the restaurants, quoting Slow Food Week.